

Major mistakes in final papers:

- Major headings are not centered
- Subheadings (2nd level) are not placed flush left
- Subsubheadings (3rd level) are not followed by a text on the same line
- Introduction is not separated by two blank lines from abstract
- The name of the journal is not in italics
- Corresponding author is not marked correctly
- The specification of commission is missing
- Figures and tables are not separated from neighbouring text
- Captions are not centered
- DOI number is unnecessarily written in references (DOI should not be mentioned in references)
